UPDATE ON PUBLIC MASSES

Last weekend when we were able, at last, to invite you to join us in the church for Mass was an occasion of great joy for all concerned. We were blessed with the finest weather we have had in a month which, of itself, would lift anybody's hearts. So many of the worries we, as organisers, had proved to be unfounded. Our main worry was the possibility of having to tell people that there was no room for them in the church due to our restrictions in numbers. Thank God, this did not occur at any of the Masses so far.

Since we are allowed 100 in the church since Monday we have had an average of 85 attending. I thank all those who have attended since last Saturday. It was so good to see you all back again. It made all the innumerable hours of preparation worthwhile and if you had not turned up it would have been all for nothing.

Could I respectfully ask those of you who can get to Mass on weekdays to consider the needs of those who cannot? You might consider the many families whose loved ones are remembered on Saturday mornings in particular as well as the families with children for whom the 10.30am and 12.30pm Masses on Sunday would be most popular. The 7pm Saturday evening and 8.30am Sunday morning Masses may be the easiest to get into.

Once again, we are indebted to all of our volunteers who have made all this possible. Everything they ask you to do is to ensure your safety and comply with the conditions under which we must operate. I will continue to keep you informed on how we are getting on in an ever-evolving situation. Thank God it has been very satisfactory so far.
