Thirty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

Prisoners' Sunday

*Pope Francis, washing the feet of prisoners –
Casal del Marmo prison for minors, northwest of Rome, on Holy Thursday, 6th April 2023*

Let us imagine how the disciples were astonished when they saw Jesus beginning to perform this task fit for slaves... He wanted to make them understand the message for the next day when he would die like a slave to pay the debt for all of us. It is very beautiful to help each other, to give a hand – these are human universal gestures that are born from a noble heart. And with this celebration today, Jesus wants to teach us this: the nobility of the heart.

Each one of us could say: 'But if the Pope only know the things I have inside'. But Jesus knows that, and he loves us just like we are! And he washes each of our feet. Jesus is never shocked at our weaknesses. He is never astonished because he has already paid. He just wants to accompany us; he wants to take us by the hand so that life won't be so harsh for us.

And none of us can say, 'Thanks be to God I am not like..., you know.' 'If I am not like that it is because of the grace of God!' Each one of us can slip, every one of us. And this awareness, this certainty that each of us can slip, is what gives us the dignity – listen to the word – the 'dignity' of being sinners.

Now, I will do the same thing as a memory of what Jesus taught us, to help each other and in this way, life is more beautiful, and we can carry on like this.
